10                   CHRISTOPHER C. JOHNSON,

11                   Plaintiff,

12                   v.

13                   EXPERIAN INFORMATION SOLUTIONS,
14                   INC.,

15                   Defendant.

16                   CASE NO. 3:23-cv-5212-KKE

17                   ORDER GRANTING STIPULATED 18                   PROTECTIVE ORDER

19                   IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED by and between Plaintiff Christopher Johnson and 20                   Defendant EXPERIAN INFORMATION SOLUTIONS, INC. (“Experian”) through its attorneys 21                   of record, as follows:

22                   1.       PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

23                   Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or 24                   private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby 25                   stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties 26                   acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file

1 confidential information under seal.

2 “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

3 “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things 4 produced or otherwise exchanged:

5 a. information prohibited from disclosure by statute;

6 b. information that the party has a reasonable and good faith belief contains a trade secret, 7 including, but not limited to, disclosure logs, D/R logs, transaction logs, admin reports, and 8 Defendants’ confidential policies and procedures;

9 c. research, technical, commercial or financial information that the party has maintained as 10 confidential, and that, if disclosed to customers or competitors, would tend to damage the party's 11 competitive position or expose an individual to identity theft;

12 d. information and documents that a party has a reasonable and good faith belief 13 constitutes, contains, or refers to proprietary technology or information owned or developed by the 14 producing party, and that, if disclosed to customers or competitors, would tend to damage the 15 party's competitive position, including, but not limited to, Defendants' confidential policies and 16 procedures, disclosure logs, D/R logs, transaction logs, and Admin reports.

17 SCOPE

18 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 19 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all 20 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, 21 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

22 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 23 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

24 ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

25 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed 26 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting,

1 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 2 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material 3 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 4 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement. Nothing in this Order shall 5 prevent a party from using at trial and information or materials designated "Confidential."

6       4.2     Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 7 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 8 confidential material only to:

9               (a)     the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees 10 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

11              (b)     the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 12 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties 13 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so 14 designated;

15              (c)     experts and consultants specifically retained in connection with this 16 litigation to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation and who have signed the 17 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

18              (d)     the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

19              (e)     copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 20 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service 21 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 22 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

23              (f)     during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 24 reasonably necessary and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" 25 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 26 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must

1 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 2 under this agreement;

3 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 4 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

5 All persons receiving documents produced pursuant to this Order shall be advised of their 6 confidential nature. All persons to whom confidential information and/or documents are 7 disclosed are hereby enjoined from disclosing same to any person except as provided herein, and 8 are further enjoined from using same except in the preparation for and trial of the above-9 captioned action between the named parties thereto. No person receiving or reviewing such 10 confidential documents, information or transcript shall disseminate or disclose them to any 11 person other than those described above in Section 4.2 and for the purposes specified, and in no 12 event shall such person make any other use of such document or transcript.

13 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 14 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 15 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 16 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion 17 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 18 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 19 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing 20 the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 21 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material 22 under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 23 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
24 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 25 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

26 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

1       5.1     Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 2 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 3 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 4 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 5 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 6 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 7 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

8           Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 9 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 10 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 11 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

12          If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 13 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties 14 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

15       5.2     Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 16 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 17 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 18 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

19           (a)    Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 20 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), 21 the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains 22 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, 23 the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 24 markings in the margins).

25           (b)    Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties 26 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial

1 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony 2 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within twenty-one days after 3 availability of the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of 4 the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect 5 confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

6 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place 7 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word 8 "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 9 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

10 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 11 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's 12 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 13 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 14 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

15 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

16 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 17 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality 18 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 19 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 20 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 21 original designation is disclosed.

22 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 23 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential 24 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration 25 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other 26 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list

1 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-2 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

3       6.3     Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court 4 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local 5 Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 6 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 7 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 8 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 9 the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

10 7.       PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER 11 LITIGATION

12       If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 13 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 14 must:

15           (a)     promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 16 subpoena or court order;

17           (b)     promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 18 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 19 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 20           (c)     cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 21 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

22 8.       UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

23       If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential 24 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 25 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, 26 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the

1 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, 2 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 3 Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

4 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
5 MATERIAL

6 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 7 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 8 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 9 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 10 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 11 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

12 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

13 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 14 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and 15 summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

16 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 17 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, 18 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work 19 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

20 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 21 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

1 PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED

2 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any 3 documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or information, whether inadvertent or 4 otherwise, in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other federal or 5 state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those 6 documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection, or any other 7 privilege or protection recognized by law. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum 8 protection allowed by Fed. R. Evid. 502(d). The provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) do not apply.
9 Nothing contained herein is intended to or shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review 10 of documents, ESI or information (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or 11 segregation of privileged and/or protected information before production. Information produced 12 in discovery that is protected as privileged or work product shall be immediately returned to the 13 producing party.
